

March 2nd Snow Storm

The weekend of March 2, 2002 brought 10 inches of snow to Madison and made the sledding hill at Olbrich Park a popular spot for the weekend. One week later, spring was making a comeback and the snow was replaced with a grassy hill overlooking Lake Monona.

